ABLEISM 101:
What is ableism?
What is disability?

Tuesday, October 15 from 3:00 PM - 4:00PM
Disability Cultural Center
Highland Commons Room D217

Ableism 101 is a four part workshop series by the Disability Cultural Center aimed at providing base knowledge about disability identity, culture and activism. Through the workshops, participants will learn about ableist terminology, microaggressions, disability activism history, how to create accessible spaces and events, and about the roots of disability justice work.

Participants will need to RSVP for all four 1-hour sessions to complete the workshop.
